

Noon - 1:30 p.m.

NCBIO's 26th Annual Meeting is being held virtually over four days, September 29 to October 2, with a program session each day from Noon to 1:30 p.m.

On Tuesday, September 29, join us for a Local Election Outlook session, sponsored by BIO. This session includes an examination of the allure of drug price control and healthcare costs as a political issue. How will the NC election affect the national election, and vice versa?

Hear Democratic and Republican campaign consultants as they explain what issues are driving political debate and campaign promises.

- Morgan Jackson, Co-founder and Partner, Nexus Strategies
- Paul Shumaker, Founder and President, Capital Communications
- Sam Taylor, President, NCBIO (moderator)

Additional sessions include:

- Wednesday, September 30 - National Policy Outlook and Ramifications
- Thursday, October 1 - Value of Life Sciences: The Future of Health for Our People
- Friday, October 2 - Biotechnology's Promise: Feeding, Fueling and Healing the World

NCBIO members, use your personalized link below to sign up now and reserve your spot at our 26th Annual Meeting. In your registration confirmation, you will receive the GoToWebinar link. You will need to click that link to receive your unique login.

Register Online

Sorry, I'm not able to attend

Click this link and you will not receive additional advisories for the Annual Meeting.

Feel free to share this invitation with others in your organization. They will need to contact Amber Niebauer to register.

Thank you to our 2020 Annual Meeting sponsors.

If you are interested in sponsoring the Annual Meeting, please contact our membership director, Laura Gunter.

Sam Taylor, President
North Carolina Biosciences Organization
P.O. Box 14354
Research Triangle Park, NC 27709
staylor@ncbioscience.net