8:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.
NC Biotechnology Center

More than 150 stakeholders in the life science community are registered to attend NCBIO's 25th Annual Meeting on October 3 at the NC Biotechnology Center. We anticipate more than 200 attending. Come participate in networking during the break, lunch and dessert reception. Attendees will hear from and participate in two keynote presentations and two panel sessions. Keynotes include:

- New Innovations: Personalized Health and Cancer Treatment by Marty Murphy, Ph.D., Co-founder of the Society for Translational Oncology and Former CEO of the Hipple Cancer Research Center
- Capital Formation and Market Trends by J.P. Morgan's Co-Heads of Healthcare Banking, Peter Meath and Lauren Ruane

The Ag and Human Microbiome panel is moderated by John Ryals, Ph.D., Former President and CEO, and Chair Emeritus, Board of Directors, Metabolon. This panel features leaders representing animal health, human health and plant health. The discussion focuses on acknowledging the microbiome and understanding how to manipulate it for nutritional and therapeutic purposes. Panelists include:

- Anne Ballou, Ph.D., Research and Development Scientist, Premex
- Nick Gillitt, Ph.D., Chief Science Officer, David H. Murdock Research Institute
- Jared Jensen, Ph.D., Nematologist, AgBiome

The Access and Availability panel is moderated by Marianne Lopez, Ph.D., Research Director, Value-Based Payment Reform, Duke-Margolis Center for Health Policy. Panelists discuss how to assure patient access to novel and established therapies while controlling cost, and include:

- Dora Hughes, M.D., M.P.H., Associate Research Professor, Department of Health Policy and Management, Milken Institute School of Public Health, The George Washington University
- Robin Levy, Senior Director, Public Policy and Advocacy, International Myeloma Foundation
