Honolulu – The Building Industry Association of Hawaii (BIA-Hawaii) will hold its 64th Annual Installation Banquet on December 7th at Ko‘olau Ballroom. SSFM International’s Dean Uchida will step down as the BIA-Hawaii President and Marshall Hickox, co-owner of Homeworks Construction will be installed as the organization’s 2019 President. Mr. Hickox shared his vision and hopes for 2019,

I am truly excited to take on the challenges ahead. Renewing BIA-Hawaii’s strategic plan by setting new, aggressive, but achievable goals for my Presidency and several years beyond will be at the forefront. We need to keep moving the goal posts and strive to be an influence and voice of our industry that cannot be ignored. Growing membership too, will be a primary focus as our strength to make a difference relies on our base. I hope to work toward increasing the participation of our members in all facets of the BIA, including the use of the education programs, board and committee meetings, and attendance at General Membership Meetings and events.

The emcee for this year’s event will be iHeart Radio’s Rick Hamada, a long-time friend and associate of the in-coming BIA-Hawaii President and host of a news radio program on KHVH AM. In-coming President, Marshall Hickox will focus on issues that have plagued the construction industry and housing availability. Mr. Hickox has been deeply involved in advocating for changes at the City's Department of Permitting & Planning and he will continue to work on behalf of the industry moving forward.

In addition to the BIA-Hawaii President's installation, Dwight Mitsunaga of DM Pacific, Beau Nobmann of HPM Building Supply, and Daryl Takamiya of Castle & Cooke Homes will be installed as Board Officers for the organization.

BIA-Hawaii will also bestow several awards at the banquet; including Developer, Builder, Specialty Contractor, Associate, Supplier, and Affiliate of the Year. The winners will be announced and recognized at the event.
