

Andrew J. Orosz, General Counsel
Handover Land Company
Candidate for Builder Director

Andrew Orosz serves as Executive Vice President and General Counsel of Hanover Capital Partners, LLC, and its affiliated development entities, Hanover Land Company, LLC and Hanover Family Builders, LLC. In that capacity, Andrew oversees and facilitates all of Hanover's acquisition, disposition and financing transactions, in addition to other legal and regulatory matters impacting Hanover's significant portfolio of real estate assets. Andrew previously participated in the ownership and subsequent disposition of Cambridge Homes and Royal Oak Homes.

Prior to joining Hanover as in-house counsel, Andrew practiced real estate and hospitality law as a shareholder at Lowndes from 2006-2016, and thereafter at GrayRobinson, P.A., where Andrew presently maintains a relationship as an Of Counsel attorney. During the course of Andrew's career in private practice, in addition to representing Hanover, Andrew represented a variety of Florida-based developers, homebuilders, and investors in all phases of a real estate transaction, including contract negotiation, due diligence, land acquisition/disposition, financing, and analysis and procurement of land use approvals and entitlements. Andrew also has significant representative experience in the hospitality industry, where he has facilitated the acquisition, financing, and disposition of luxury and resort hospitality properties cumulatively valued at over $4 Billion throughout the United States.

Andrew graduated from Bishop Moore High School (1999) in Orlando before attending the University of Notre Dame, where he graduated with a degree in Political Science, Magna Cum Laude (2003). Andrew obtained his Juris Doctor, Cum Laude (2006), from the University of Florida's Levin College of Law, and concurrently received a Master of Science in Real Estate (MSRE) from UF's Warrington College of Business (2006).

Andrew and his wife, Sonni, reside in Orlando with their three children – Sam (5), Francesca (3), and Sicilia (1). In his (increasingly rare) free time, Andrew enjoys playing basketball and running. Andrew is also a proud, yet tortured, fan of the Orlando Magic and Notre Dame Fighting Irish.
