

Louis Bibeau
President & COO
Logistik Unicorp
Saint-Jean-sur-Richelieu,
Quebec

Mr. Bibeau received his Bachelor's degree from the Université du Québec à Trois-Rivières in Business Administration in 1972. He thus began as an accountant for the Bank of Nova Scotia. In 1974, he became Vice-Consul for Canada in France and Second Secretary in Algeria and Tunisia. He came back to the United States as Vice-Consul for Canada until 1980. In 1980, he worked for several departments within the federal government. In 1986, he became the owner and President of Cravate Benart and then found Logistik Unicorp in 1992. To date, Mr. Bibeau is still president of Cravate Benart and is the President and Chief Executive Officer of Logistik Unicorp.

Logistik Unicorp is a world leader in the delivery of solutions, services and products for people in uniform. Because Mr. Bibeau believes in the future of the industry he is also a member of several Groups: Groupe mmode, QG100, Le Groupement des Chefs d'entreprises du Québec, CTIA (Canadian Textile Industry Association), CAF (Canadian Apparel Federation), EIHA (European Industrial Hemp Association), etc.