

FCICA

Why You Should Join

The FCICA organization provides an unparalleled opportunity to interact and learn from leading professionals in the flooring business in an extremely friendly and welcoming environment.

-Daniel Ortiz-Bacon
Allstate Floors

I have gained a family of very knowledgeable friends that I have used as mentors to grow our business and value to our clients.

-Bruce Reeve
Flooring Services, Inc.

I am a member of FCICA for multiple reasons. The amount of knowledge that floats around these conventions is tremendous. To be able to take just a small amount of it home with you every time is priceless. The ability for the first timer, the apprentice, the beginning project manager to walk away after meeting some of the top minds in the industry will give them a feeling that they have the support of the best of the best. The most important part is that they will now know that they are not the only one in the trenches fighting the battles on a day to day basis and that a network of help and knowledge is only a phone call away.

-Mike Pigeon
FLEXCO

Our company is a member because it gives us the opportunity to network with the best installation firms in the world. As a manufacturer, their feed-back and suggestions are highly valued.

-Joel Cartee
Sponge Cushion, Inc.

Knowledge is Power

 FCICA established The Certified Installation Manager (CIM) program to promote the highest standard of flooring installation management through the credentialing of Installation Managers. FIT—Floorcovering Installation Training

The FIT Program is designed to be used by dealers, distributors, or manufacturers to train installers, project managers and salespeople “by the book”. The FIT materials are flexible and can therefore be taught in a single block or as part of an on-going program.
