

ART CLASSES

Bloom3: The Art of Flower Arranging led by owner/artist Kim Leshner; Fridays in September from 1-5 pm. $30 per person; limited to 6 people per session. Choose from floral or succulent garden. Reservations required. (708) 937-9266 or bloom3.com

Bottle & Bottega: Join in-studio or virtually for an assortment of fun fall events. Whether you join in-person or connect virtually with an At Home Paint Kit, you're bound to FALL for this artful adventure! Includes all painting supplies and instruction; no experience needed. (708) 441-4300 or paintingwithatwist.com/studio/la-grange/

Ceramic Art Café: Unleash your inner Picasso and design your own painted ceramic plate. Mondays in September from 1-4 pm, beginning Sept. 14; Wednesdays in September beginning Sept. 16. Prices range from $16-$20. Reservations required. (708) 579-3033.

La Grange Art League: September 19 from 1-2:30 pm. Youth Dot Rock Painting Class—Scary Skeletons, Ghouls and Pumpkins. $25. Reservations at www.lagrangeartleague.org

THE ART OF FOOD

Baird & Warner sponsors this unique virtual event featuring culinary demonstrations from some of the top chefs and restaurant owners in La Grange. Follow BairdWarnerLaGrange on Facebook and Instagram for details.

LIVE MUSIC

Palmer Place: Enjoy live music on the rooftop and patio every Sunday from 1:30–4:30 pm and Wednesday from 6:30–10 pm through September. (708) 482-7127

Antonino's Ristorante: Live music under the spacious tent every Sunday in September. (708) 579-9191

The Elm: Summer takes on a whole new vibe from the rooftop of The Elm. Fiddlesticks perform Saturday, Sept. 19 at 8 pm. Reservations needed: (708) 639-4068

LIVE ART

Pop-Up Art Studio: Watch a local artist at work from inside a storefront window every Saturday from 1-4 pm beginning Sept. 12. Windows located at 26 S. La Grange Rd.

Featured Artists: Heidi Buckner (Sept 12); Jawuane Johnson (Sept. 19); and Julie Skida/Kelly Clark (Sept. 26)

Charlie Lindsey Portraits on the Patio: La Grange Art League. Back by popular demand, outdoor portraits done in charcoal and graphite. 10:30 am–4 pm on Sept. 26. $25 per person, weather permitting. Reservations at 708-352-3101.

Community Chalk Art: Boyce Chiropractic, 114 Calendar Ave. Add your personality to this community chalk project outdoor on Saturdays this month beginning Sept. 12.

ARTS Stroll LA GRANGE SEPTEMBER 2020

La Grange is celebrating its vibrant arts community all month long.

Take an art class with a friend. Sip a drink to live music.

Stroll down the street to watch an artist at work.

Marvel at amazing local talent and purchase some of their work.

ONLINE ART AUCTION

Own a colorful part of La Grange's unique story by bidding on one of nearly 30 hand-painted wheeled party carts that have been created by local artists and exhibited in the 2020 summer art project. The art project is an annual tradition that celebrates the partnership of our lively arts community and local businesses.

Bidding is open until 7 pm on September 12.
www.LagrangEvents.com

STROLL SAFE. BE SOCIAL.

Tag us in your posts with #LagrangeArtsStroll

Sponsored by

LA GRANGE

ART ON DISPLAY

Anecdote (8 W. Burlington): An eclectic array of vintage and modern art, sculptures and original artwork by locally and nationally known artists are for sale in this interior design shop.

Aracely's Bakery (15 W. Harris): Colorful walls are accented by hand-painted Latin art that celebrates Hispanic culture. The edible goods displayed in this Mexican bakery are an art in themselves.

Bloom3 (104 W. Burlington): Inspired by passion and spirit for nature, art, fashion and interiors, a unique color mix and layering of textures in collage, abstract and fiber art is evident in this store.

fourteensixteen (14 Calendar): Industrial wall sculptures of iron, steel and metal accent this restaurant. These ordinary pieces inspire viewers to appreciate art in everyday objects.

Kama Bistro (9 S. La Grange Rd): Explore intricate vintage wood carvings made by Indian artisans whose craft has been handed down for generations.

La Grange Art League (122 Calendar): Juried exhibit of local artists in various mediums with the theme "Road Less Travelled." All art available for purchase. ARTrageous Event through Sept. 20: 50% off member donated art; reduced to 70% off on September 19; name-your-price on Sept. 20.

La Grange Public Library (10 W. Cossitt): Visit the exhibit on the second floor showcasing the talents of local artists from the La Grange Art League.

MAKS House (46 S. La Grange Rd): Chicago graffiti artists #Muse and #Slang created unique, edgy and colorful street art murals that captivate the walls of this restaurant both indoors and out.

Marco's Kitchen (26 S. La Grange Rd): Can you help Marco name the painting? Art deco paintings that illustrate Chef Marco's "favorite things" were commissioned for this restaurant, including a hallway art gallery. Admire the art and enjoy "frunch" (French + light lunch) at the outdoor café from 1-4 pm on Saturdays this month beginning Sept. 12.

Maria's Floral (26 Arcade Place): Fresh floral art accents the entrance and interior of this unique flower shop tucked away in a La Grange passageway.

Mary Vincent Fine Art Gallery (22 Calendar): Features many established contemporary artists of today along with artwork by our beloved modern masters. The gallery carries a variety of original oils, acrylics, watercolors, photography and sculptures, with limited-edition giclees and etchings available for purchase. maryvincentgallery.com

Smothers Group with Compass (919 W. Hillgrove): Art students of Park Junior High School have created "Welcoming Arbor," a vibrant and uplifting outdoor mural designed by student artist Katie Farley in 2018. Inside, a Community Art Wall highlights the original works of both professional and amateur artists in our community.

Steak + Vine (37 S. La Grange Rd): Black and white photo exhibit of iconic La Grange locations by local photographer Krissy Joseph. Don't forget to ask for the daily Arts Stroll drink specials, too!

Thipi Thai Restaurant (25 W. Calendar): From unique vintage stone carvings from masonry masters to beautiful paintings displaying Thai costumes and culture, these pieces transport visitors to an exotic destination.

ART IN THE WINDOWS

Selected works from local artists displayed in designated store windows. Artwork in each window is available for sale.

- Ann Saladino, artist
Baird & Warner, 318 W. Burlington Ave.
- Bill Kalnes, artist
Luxe/Honor, 311 W. Hillgrove Ave.
- Catherine Coy, artist
Marco's Kitchen, 26 S. La Grange Rd.
- Christy Verity, artist
La Grange Upholstery, 704 W. Burlington Ave.
- Deb Correnti, artist
Stockholm Objects, 717 W. Hillgrove Ave.

- Donna Skonning, artist
Cold Stone Creamery, 76 S. La Grange Rd.
- Janet Lewandowski, artist
JAYNE, 20 W. Harris Ave.
- Greg Stanley, artist
Veni Vidi Val, 25 S. La Grange Rd.
- Helping Hand, artists
FNBC Bank & Trust, 600 W. Burlington Ave.
- Jennifer Krol, artist
Elliptihit, 71 S. La Grange Rd.
- Rebecca Russow, artist
Linnea Jewelers, 23 S. Ashland Ave.
- Mary Southard, artist
Storefront window, 26 S. La Grange Rd.

STROLL SAFE. BE SOCIAL.

Tag us in your posts with #LagrangeArtsStroll