

*2019 FLF Clay Shoot Chair
Kris Kreymborg, Swinerton*

This month, meet your 2019 FLF Clay Shoot Chair, Kris Kreymborg

Kris Kreymborg is a Project Manager for Swinerton, and has been working for the company since graduating from CSU in 2012. As Project Manager, Kris is responsible for the daily administration of the construction project. He supervises the field office staff and manages the day-to-day interaction with the project client. He is responsible for maintaining cost control, preparation of billings, negotiating subcontract change orders, reviewing potential contract changes, maintaining the project schedule, performing takeoffs, writing subcontracts, and project buyouts. Throughout his career Kris has worked on many project types including parking garages, detention centers, schools, class A office buildings and tenant finish projects.

When Kris is not onsite or in the office he likes spending time with his wife and their dogs. Kris also enjoys hunting, fishing, golfing, wakeboarding, traveling and anytime the Rams beat the Buffs. Go Rams!

June Review:

Young Professional Happy Hour - June 20, 2019

AGC Future Leaders Forum & Design Build Institute of America co-hosted a networking event at The 1Up Arcade Bar on Colfax.

The goal of this event was to bring the two professional organizations together in a comfortable atmosphere where we could get to know one another, discuss work and have a good time.

The following survey responses summed it up:

"It was a lot of fun! A good way for people to relate, play games, and discuss work."

"It was an awesome place for happy hour."

Attend 8 or more events throughout the year and you'll be entered to win great prizes at the holiday party!!

A brief survey will be sent out following each monthly event.

Please be sure and complete it as it only takes a couple minutes!!

Your input is valuable in helping assess each event.

Every response is greatly appreciated!

Stay tuned for a new way of communicating with the group!
