Dear Future PWB Sponsor,

I would like to inform you about an excellent sponsorship opportunity for your company in the residential construction industry. The Professional Women in Building Council (PWB) of the Home Builders Association of Greater New Orleans supports the professional development of women in the home building industry. We provide monthly networking opportunities, advocacy for the construction industry, and education and training programs that focus on leadership development and industry-related information.

Partnering with PWB is valuable to your company and provides several benefits. PWB seeks donations to provide quality events for our members. We use sponsorship dollars towards these events and apply at least 10% to our PWB Scholarship Fund. Our scholarships advances women's education in fields such as architecture, construction and industry-related fields. The next page reflects various sponsorship level opportunities.

We look forward to a future partnership with your company. Let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Lisa Schoen
