

NAHB Professional Women in Building Scholarships

NAHB Professional
Women in Building

Requirements:

Full-time student, with at least one full academic year remaining, pursuing education in a building-related course of study, such as construction management, building, construction technology, civil engineering, architecture, design, or any of the trade specialties at the college or university they attend

Completed application with 2 letters of recommendation

Completed Application

Copy of official college transcript

For a copy of the application email
Teri @tericnoel1816@gmail.com

National Housing Endowment Strategies for Success Scholarship

Contact Teri

@tericnoel1816@gmail.com

Submit by Midnight, September 16, 2018