

10 Reasons

To Join the Tulsa Home Builders Association

1. Credibility

Every HBA member agrees to abide a code of ethics pledging the highest value to homeowners. They are insured, submit to background checks and are approved by our board of directors.

2. Become the Voice of the Industry

Regulatory changes routinely challenge homebuilders' businesses and ability to provide affordable housing for homebuyers. The HBA has a seat at the table whenever issues that can affect the homebuilding are being discussed. Plus, the Tulsa HBA's political action committee supports local and statewide candidates who will support the Tulsa housing industry.

3. Build Valuable Relationships

The Tulsa HBA hosts over 100 events, meetings, luncheons, seminars and more. Offering you a wide range of networking opportunities to make connections and grow your business.

4. Stay Up-to-Date on Education

Become certified, stay certified or earn designations without costly traveling.

5. Earn Discounts

Earn local discounts on products, insurance and other services from both members and national programs.

6. Learn Vital Industry Information

Stay ahead of the game with email updates on legislation, subdivision regulations, city issues and more.

7. Give Back to Your Community

Our members give over $200,000 annually to philanthropic efforts that support housing and education in the Tulsa Community. We have partnered with over 30 organizations like: Tulsa Habitat for Humanity, Family & Children's Services, Food Bank of Eastern Oklahoma, and more.

8. Receive Exclusive Sponsorship Opportunities

Our members get exclusive access to hundreds of sponsor opportunities that help them advertise to their direct market ranging from events, meetings, products, online and in publications.

9. Earn 3 memberships in 1 – Local, State and National

Your membership at the Tulsa HBA not only earns you benefits here in Tulsa but serves as a membership at the state level with the Oklahoma State Home Builders Association (OSHBA) and nationally at the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB).

10. Become and industry leader

Our members gain leadership skills by serving on committees and council leadership boards to better serve our Association and community.
