CONTRACTOR Spotlight

NARI of Greater Charlotte is excited to introduce to you Mrs. Stephanie Buehler. We introduced Stephanie at our February dinner meeting, held at Kauffman & Co. Stephanie and her husband, Doug, own the Charlotte franchise of California Closets. From the name, you may be tempted to think of this company simply as a closet organization company, but they are so much more.

The team at California Closets are experts in whole home organization and storage with projects ranging from reach-in closets all the way to fully organized libraries and home offices to utilizing dead space found in basements, lofts, bonus rooms and spare bedrooms.

As the world we are living in has quickly changed due to COVID-19 and the home storage and organization needs of many homeowners are evolving weekly, we wanted to feature some of the HOME OFFICE / REMOTE WORKSPACE solutions that Stephanie and her team can offer contractors and homeowners alike. Shown here are several home office arrangements that can help homeowners or business owners make the most of any space. Whether you need a workspace/part-time guest room or a full-on home office or more organized space at your real office, California Closets can work with you or your clients to design a space that covers all the bases.
